Thank You for Always Being There By Claire Wolfgang

Thank you for always being there,
Mighty eagle who roams the skies.
You give us hope
And strength
In all the trying times.
Thank you for always being there,
The red the white and blue,
For valour, justice, and purity.
You remind us of our achievements and goals,
You give us a sense of security.
Thank you for always being there,
Spangled Banner that we fly.
Your anthem gives us unity
And reminds us why.
Why we fly your flag and
Sing your merry tune.
Why we are so uplifted when
We're in the month of June.
Thank you for always being there,
4th Day of July.
You remind us of our individuality
And our breaking away from brutality.
Thank you for always being there,
Bell of Liberty cracked in two.
A sign of freedom and justice,
And of course liberty too.
Thank you for always being there,
Pledge of Allegiance that we say
Every morning before we start

Our work-filled day.
Thank you for always being there,
Soldiers and veterans alike.
You have protected us and sacrificed yourselves,
You've kept us awake at night.
Worrying that one day, you'll no longer be Here.
Worrying that one day, you won't come
Home.
That you'll no longer be so near.
Thank you for always being there,
To show us why we live.
Why we need to sacrifice so much
And have to give.
Have to give kindness,
And forgiveness
And grace.
Why we give so much,
For such an imperfect place.
While we might not be
Perfect,
Yes that is true.
Yet there are so many people
With a different point of view.
Our country is so beautiful.
So diverse and free.
Our country is our wonderful
Home.
I hope you can agree.
Thank you for always being there,
Citizens of our country.
You are the building blocks of our
Nation and the key to a
Better tomorrow.
